IN MEMORIAM

IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of Samuel M. Morgan, who left us two years ago, June 16th, 1956.
It was on Saturday,
I'll never forget the day;
God saw the road was getting rough,
The hill was hard to climb.
He gently closed your loving eyes,
And whispered Peace be thine.
—Sadly missed by Family.

IN MEMORIAM
In memory of my husband, Charles Willie Orange, who died June 19, 1957.

I little thought when you were leaving home,
That you would never return:
That you soon in death would sleep
And leave me here to mourn.
I often sit and think of you,
And of the way you died.

That you could never say goodbye
Before you closed your eyes;
The blow was hard, the shock severe
I never thought your death so near.
But only those who have lost can tell
The pain of parting without farewell.

The flowers I place upon your grave
May wither and decay,
But the love for you who is beneath, will never fade away.

Memories drift to scenes long past,
Time goes on but memories last.
Loving thoughts, a secret hear,
Keep Willie's memory ever dear.
—Sadly missed by his wife,
Mrs. Etta Orange.

About The Home

Lawn edging has been made ... a narrow strip of metal or ... inserted in the ground. The result is a barrier to subarce and underground growth.

Lawn edging was originally designed to keep turf areas from encroaching on flower and shrub beds. However, now it is being put to many other uses. It is perfect to construct a strawberry pyramid, the layers of soil can be built up as high as six layers.

It is perfect to retain the soil in tree-form terracing on gentle slopes. It keeps the lawn in place and the soil from bleeding away while the grass is taking hold.

Lawn edging can be placed around specimen trees and shrubs to keep a mulch in place or to hold irrigation water.

Try it along garden paths or pathways to keep gravel or pine straw in place, and to keep the weeds out. It will make a perfect divider for sections in seed flats. Use it to mark off a formal garden.

Lawn edging can be bought in your garden supply store. It is sold under many trade names in steel and aluminum metals, and plastics. Almost all types are corrugated for extra strength. The average width is four inches. There are also widths of six to eight inches for southern gardens where a deeper edging is needed to stop the spread of deep grass roots.

All the Details

"Have you ever appeared as a witness in a suit before?" the counsel asked the girl in the witness box.

"Why, of course," she replied.

"Will you tell the jury what suit it was?"

The information came promptly: "It was a blue suit, with white collar and cuffs, and buttons all the way down the front."
